Substitution Practice

Use a trigonometric substitution to integrate the function $f(x) = x\sqrt{x^2 - 9}$.
Check your work by integration using the substitution $u = x^2$.

18.01SC Single Variable Calculus
Fall 2010